Flag Review

Kathy Baldrige is an outstanding real estate seller agent. She is very professional, knowledgeable, dependable, and a caring person to handle the situation.

I was trying to sell my mother's house and I live 1000 miles away. She was in constant communication with me to let me know how things were going good or bad. She was always working for the best for us. She assisted in handling a lot of hurdles, with the selling of my mother's house and we had many. She was there any time day or night if we had a question or a problem. We could always depend on her to find a solution. She always knew the right people to call no matter what the problem.

I would recommend Kathy for your home selling needs whether you live near or far. She will make it worry free. She is a true professional.
