

I met Kathy several years ago through a friend. So, I have known about Kathy's expertise for a while. What I didn't know until this year, when I engaged her, was how good she is at it. I moved to Florida, where I had a full house of furniture. Consequently, with the exception of the few items the family wanted, everything in the Nashua house had to be either sold, given away or thrown away, a massive job. Kathy worked tirelessly to make it all happen, always keeping in mind what was best for me. As my realtor, Kathy suggested several actions which expedited the sale. Kathy's personality is infectious. During the process we have become good friends. That made the whole process much easier for me and, yes...more fun.
